

The Hangleton
& Knoll Project
Working for a better community

The long established Hangleton & Knoll Project is a multiple award winner for innovatory community development and youth work.

We are looking for people to join our award winning, innovative and creative youth team.

P/T Youth Worker: 19 hours p/w, SP 23 to 30; £21,268 to £26,822 pro rata.

Salary negotiable, dependent upon qualifications and experience. This post requires evening availability on 3 evenings and occasional weekend working.

We are looking for an exceptional Youth Worker confident in working with young people to initiate project's identified by young people themselves. These include a Volunteer training programme, campaign work, fundraising and planning for activities/ residential trips and supporting young people's involvement and participation with local community groups. Experience of Detached Youth Work is also desirable. Our work stretches across varying neighbourhoods presenting different issues and challenges, requiring you to be adaptive in your approach and methodologies to effectively engage and work with local young people. This is an exciting, developmental and extremely rewarding role. Three evenings/ week are required, 3hr sessions will be between 5.30pm-9pm spreading over a Monday, Wednesday, Thursday or Friday, your availability can be discussed at interview.

P/T Youth Activities Worker: 6 hours p/w SP15 to 22; £17,072 to £20,661 pro rata

Salary negotiable, dependent upon qualifications and experience. This post will spread across two evenings per week, likely to be Wednesday, Thursday or Friday. 3hr sessions will run between 5.30-9pm dependent on young people's need. Your availability will be discussed at interview.

Are you interested in the chance to develop a career in Youth Work? Are you committed, passionate and wanting a challenge? We are looking for an enthusiastic, creative individual who is confident in supporting young people to engage with positive activities. These activities range from sports, art, music, campaign work or more focused group work addressing identified by young people.

These posts will be based at St Richards Church and Community Centre, and will work with young people across the West area. You will be working as part of the Hangleton & Knoll Project youth Team and as part of a whole community approach with the Community Development team. These posts are subject to a Disclosure & Barring Scheme check

Closing date: 12 Noon 1st December
Interviews will be held on Thursday 14th December

Application packs are available for download from our website <http://www.hkproject.org.uk>
Or please email: info@hkproject.org.uk

All completed applications by email to: info@hkproject.org.uk By 12pm 1st December

If you would like any further information please e-mail Area Lead Youth Coordinator Michelle Old E: michelle.old@hkproject.org.uk if you would like her to call you back rather than email please be sure to include your best contact number.

Registered Charity No. 11139971
Company Limited by Guarantee No. 7260539